Conductor Victoria Longdon

THE CHAIN

Friday 22nd February, 7.30pm

Join us on a narrated journey spanning nearly 700 years, from Dufay to McCartney. We choose just one thread to follow through time, connecting each composer to his successors by a particular work, or by the style which they passed on to their pupils. Discover the thread that links Bach, Brahms, Scalero, Barber, Stanford, Britten and McCartney: a connected series of teachers, students, idols and muses from the fifteenth century to the present day.
